

CENTER for the DEAF and HARD of HEARING

Parent Education Series Presents . . .

TRANSITION: How do we get from Birth-to-Three to School?

Thursday, October 16, 2008

11:30 AM to 1:00 PM

At the Center for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing
10243 W. National Ave., West Allis

Through this workshop, presented by Christine Kometer, CDHH Kellogg Child and Family Program Director, you will gain a better understanding of the transition process from Birth-to-Three services to public school.

Find answers to these questions and more:

- What is involved in transitioning from Birth-to-Three to public school?
- How does it happen and who will help you?
- What is your role in the transition process?
- What kinds of services will be available to your child?
- What key things do you need to know as your child enters public school?
- What can you do to help the transition go smoothly?

Please register at least one week in advance by phone, email or online at www.cdhh.org.
A $5 donation per family is suggested.

✂ Don't miss this invaluable presentation. Reserve your place by October 13!*
